PRESS RELEASE

PUBLIC APPEAL FOR IN-KIND DONATIONS TO SUPPORT MOZAMBIQUE FLOOD RELIEF EFFORTS

GABORONE: 25th January 2026: Mozambique has experienced severe flooding, impacting over 600,000 people and causing extensive damage. The Mozambican government has issued a Red Alert and called for aid.

Botswana expresses solidarity and urges the public to support Mozambique through in-kind donations of non-perishable food, toiletries, water purifying solutions, blankets, mattresses, clothing and building materials. Donations can be delivered to the Botswana Red Cross Society in Gaborone, from 30th January to 8th February 2026. Properly label all items. This appeal requests in-kind donations only, not money.

For more information, contact Botswana Red Cross Society at +267 395 2465, office hours: 8am – 4:30pm.

The Government of Botswana thanks the public for supporting the relief efforts and embodying "Botho" for flood-affected communities.
